References

References

References

References

References

Intersegmental Committee of the Academic Senates of the California Community Colleges, the California State University, and the University of California. (2002). Academic literacy: A statement of competencies expected of students entering California’s public colleges and universities. Berkeley, CA: University of California.

times: A call to action (pp. 66–73). Texas A&M University-Commerce: The College Reading Association.

References

