

Report from the Field

---

Generative AI: The Voice of the Other

Craig A. Meyer

Jackson State University

In early 2023, AI emerged in the writing classroom as the voice of the Other, characterized by perfect grammar and poor word choice. This report from the field suggests a protocol for students to understand and develop their own writerly voice by distinguishing it from the voice of AI.